"And whereas, by Message from His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice aforesaid, a Bill has been introduced for the purpose of guaranteeing principal and interest in manner mentioned in the said agreement ;

"And whereas, it has been stated by the Honourable the Member for Nanaimo District, in his place in the House of Assembly, that it appeared that the Honourable the Leader of the Government had been working for the Company and not for the Province, and it has also been insinuated in the said House of Assembly by other Honourable Members, although not directly charged, that the Members of the Executive Council were actuated by corrupt motives in advising His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in relation to the matters aforesaid ;

"Therefore be it Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, praying him to appoint a Royal Commission to enquire whether the Honourable the Premier, in advising the said guarantee, worked for the Company and not for the Province, and whether corrupt motives of any kind existed with or influenced His Honour's Ministers in the advice tendered by them to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in relation to the Nakusp and Slocan Railway Company, and whether any of His Honour's Ministers have or had any interest, directly or indirectly, in the Nakusp and Slocan Railway Company, or in the Construction Company, either in furnishing materials or supplies, or in any way whatsoever ;" which resolution was approved by an Order of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council dated the 16th day of April, 1894.

REGULATIONS

"LABOUR CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION ACT, 1894."

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

1894.

Approved by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council pursuant to Section 23 of the "Labour Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1894."

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S DEPARTMENT,

VICTORIA, B.C., 20th April, 1894.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to approve of the following Regulations under the "Labour Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1894."

JAMES BAKER,

Provincial Secretary.

SUMMARY OF MODE OF PROCEDURE TOWARDS SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES.

1. Parties to a dispute or claim shall each appoint three managers.

The managers shall nominate four conciliators, namely:—two representing employers and two representing employees; and

The four conciliators shall constitute the Council of Conciliation, and shall, before considering the reference, nominate two arbitrators, namely:—one representing employers and one representing employees.

The two arbitrators appointed shall nominate a president, and these three shall constitute the Council of Arbitration.

In cases of direct reference to the Council of Arbitration, without a previous reference to the Council of Conciliation, then the managers shall nominate the two arbitrators, one representing employers and one representing employees.

The two arbitrators so nominated shall nominate a president, and these three shall constitute the Council of Arbitration.

SERVICES MAY BE OFFERED WITHOUT WAITING FOR APPLICATIONS FROM DISPUTANTS.

2. When disputes are pending and ruptures of cordial relations are by the Minister considered imminent, he or the Deputy Commissioner, without receiving applications from the parties to the dispute, may send notices in identical terms to both disputants, offering assistance and mediation in terms of the Act.

MANAGERS.

3. Every party agreeing, or making application, to refer a dispute or claim to a Council of Conciliation or to a Council of Arbitration should, where possible, do so in the name of its managers or persons representing such party, one of whom should be named as Manager in Chief, to whom all correspondence and notices may be addressed; and notice to such Manager in Chief shall be taken to be notice to the party of whom he is a representative. The authority to managers to act may be in the form A.

AGREEMENT TO REFER TO CONCILIATION AND "JOINT STATEMENT."

4. The parties to any dispute or claim may agree to refer it to a Council of Conciliation, and may draw up a "Joint Statement" setting out, as concisely as may be, the facts and circumstances agreed upon by the parties, and the matters in dispute between them; and such agreement and joint statement shall be in duplicate and may be in the form B, and shall be signed by the managers of each party, one copy to be retained by each party; either party may make application to refer to conciliation by forwarding to the Deputy Commissioner its said copy of the agreement and joint statement, to be filed by him in his office.

APPLICATION BY ONE PARTY TO REFER TO CONCILIATION AND "PARTY STATEMENT."

5. If no such agreement as aforesaid be come to between the parties, then either party may make application to refer to conciliation, and forward to the Deputy Commissioner two copies of a "Party Statement," containing a statement of the matter in dispute—a narrative of the material facts and circumstances on which such party intends to rely; and such application and "Party Statement" may be in the form C, and shall be signed by the managers of such party. The Deputy Commissioner shall file one of the copies of the said application, and shall forward the other copy to the opposite party, endorsed as follows: "You are requested (should you desire the services of a Council of Conciliation) to name, within seven days after the receipt of this application and party statement, two Conciliators to consider the reference conjointly with the Conciliators named by the applicant for conciliation, and to forward your Reply thereto."

THE "REPLY."

6. Within seven days after the receipt of a "Party Statement," a "Reply" thereto may be made by forwarding two copies of the same to the Deputy Commissioner. The reply may agree to the matter in dispute being referred to conciliation, and may state all the facts which the party making it thinks necessary or advisable to set forth, and may admit, explain or deny the matters contained in the party statement. The reply may be in the form D contained in the Schedule. The Deputy Commissioner shall file one copy of the reply, and forward the other copy to the party making the party statement.

THE FORM OF STATEMENTS AND REPLY.

7. Every "Joint Statement," and "Party Statement," and "Reply," and any copy thereof, shall be in print, type-writing, or legible hand-writing, and shall set out in simple language, and as concisely as possible consistent with clearness, the matters dealt with and the questions raised, and where convenient to do so shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively, each paragraph containing as nearly as may be a separate matter.

APPLICATIONS.

8. At any time after the delivery of a "Joint Statement," "Party Statement," or "Reply," as the case may be, and before a dispute or claim has been entered upon by the Conciliators or Arbitrators, application to amend either statements or reply may be made to the Deputy Commissioner, who may thereupon allow such amendments to be made, or disallow the same. Notice of all such amendments shall be forthwith given to the other party. The Deputy Commissioner may also, upon application to him and cause shown, extend the time for replying.

CONVENING A MEETING OF CONCILIATORS.

9. The Deputy Commissioner, the parties to a dispute or claim having named their Conciliators, shall, by notice in writing, in the words or to the effect of the form J contained in the Schedule, convene a meeting of such Conciliators, at such time and place as he may direct. On such meeting being held, the Deputy Commissioner shall make such communications to the parties as the said Conciliators may direct, and, where necessary, may require a list of witnesses to be forwarded to him, and such list may be in the form L contained in the Schedule.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT.

10. Where any dispute or claim has been settled or adjusted by a Council of Conciliation, an agreement shall be drawn up embodying the terms of such settlement or adjustment, and shall be signed by the manager or managers of each party, and be witnessed by the Conciliators. Such agreement may be in the form M contained in the Schedule.

11. Where a Council of Conciliation has been unable to bring about a settlement or adjustment of any dispute or claim referred to them satisfactory to the parties thereto, they shall forward a written report, signed by the members of the Council, to the Deputy Commissioner. Such report may be in the form N contained in the Schedule.

APPLICATION BY BOTH PARTIES TO REFER TO ARBITRATION AND "JOINT STATEMENT."

12. Where a dispute or claim has not been referred to a Council of Conciliation, both parties, if it is desired to refer it to the Council of Arbitration, must make application to do so, and may draw up a joint statement similar to that provided for in the case of an agreement to refer to conciliation (Reg. 4). Such application and statement may be in form H contained in the Schedule.

APPLICATION TO REFER TO ARBITRATION, AFTER FAILURE OF CONCILIATION.

13. Where a dispute or claim has been referred to a Council of Conciliation, but has not been settled or adjusted by such Council, the parties to such dispute or claim may, by making joint application, require the Deputy Commissioner to refer the dispute or claim to the Council of Arbitration for settlement by award, and such requisition may be in the form O contained in the Schedule.

COUNCIL OF ARBITRATION.

14. The Council of Arbitration, pursuant to section 9 of the Act, shall consist of three persons, one of whom shall be president.

CONSENT TO ASSESSORS SITTING.

15. Where a dispute or claim, having been referred to a Council of Conciliation, has not been settled or adjusted by such Council, and thereupon such dispute or claim has been referred to the Council of Arbitration for award, the parties to the said dispute or claim may consent to two members of the said Council of Conciliation, on behalf of each party, sitting as assessors upon the reference to the Council of Arbitration, and such consent may be in the form S contained in the Schedule.

EVIDENCE.

16. A majority of any Council of Conciliation or of the Council of Arbitration may reject evidence which may appear to it to be immaterial or superfluous.

17. Where a Council of Conciliation or the Council of Arbitration thinks fit, evidence on affidavit may be received.

AWARD TO BE MADE A RULE OF COURT.

18. Where both parties agree, the award may be made a rule of Court, and shall be enforceable by legal process.

When it is desired to make an award of the majority of the Council of Arbitration enforceable by legal process, the agreement to do so may be in the form R contained in the schedule.

CONDITIONS OF AN AWARD MAY BE MADE CONTINUOUS.

19. When a reference of a dispute has been made to a Council of Conciliation, or to a Council of Arbitration, and an amicable settlement has resulted therefrom, in cases when both parties to the dispute desire that penalties for the future breaches of the agreement shall be inserted in the awards and are willing to give proper securities for the payment of the same, then the President of the Council of Arbitration which made the award shall have power to fix the amounts of such penalties and to enforce them.

VACANCIES.

20. In the event of disability through illness or other cause or of a vacancy or vacancies arising through the death, resignation, or disqualification of any member of any Council of Conciliation or Arbitration, then the Lieutenant-Governor may appoint a member or members to take his place or their places on any such Council; such appointment to have effect during the continuance of the reference which such Councils were appointed to consider; and also to enforce awards or penalties made under section 19 of these regulations.

EXPENSES—THEIR MANNER OF PAYMENT.

21. The expenses attendant upon the sittings of Councils of Conciliation and arbitration shall be borne as follows:—

The Government shall in each reference to the Council of Conciliation, if the time occupied thereby does not exceed four days' sittings, pay the stated conciliation fees and any other reasonable incidental expenses up to such period, and the Government shall in case of the Council of Arbitration pay the stated fees not to exceed three days' sittings, and any other reasonable expenses up to such period, except as hereinafter explained.

After the expiration of four days' sittings of the Council of Conciliation, any later additional fees and incidental expenses connected therewith shall be divided and borne equally by the parties to the reference.

After the expiration of three days' sittings of the Council of Arbitration, in the event of an award being made and accepted by both parties to the dispute as final, the fees and incidental expenses incurred subsequent to three days' sittings shall be divided and borne equally by the disputants; but if on an award being made, one party to the dispute agrees to the award, while the other party declines to abide thereby, the party so declining shall pay all fees and incidental expenses which may be incurred subsequent to the first three days' sittings.
